Wendy and I will meet you at Waverley station – by the post box on the main concourse – it that's OK!

Many thanks.

I've spoken to Wendy and can meet Monday afternoon if that's easier. It's an Edinburgh public holiday so will need to choose an alternative location in Edinburgh. Is that ok for you? If so, name your time & we'll sort where Many thanks.

Please may I introduce myself by email. I head up the National Procurement team for NHS Scotland. I'm aware that my team is running a tender for a significant clinical waste contract and that Tradebe are one of the participants in this. You will also be aware that our current arrangements are formed by multiple contracts with one supplier in Scotland. I would like to arrange a meeting, ideally early next week and face to face, with you (or somebody else senior within Tradebe) to explore any contingency support you might be able to provide until a new contract starts. You will, I'm sure, appreciate the sensitivity and confidentiality of this request. If you require any further information beforehand, please don't hesitate to contact me. Kind regards.
