Reminder: Ophthalmic Clinician Data Access (OCDA)

You will be aware that the Scottish Government has funded the development of a new application hosted on the TURAS system – Ophthalmic Clinician Data Access (OCDA).

This application, which launched on 24 September 2025, enables clinicians to access relevant data held about them by Health Boards in relation to General Ophthalmic Services (GOS) and the Community Glaucoma Service (CGS).

The OCDA will provide clinicians with the means to submit data change requests to Health Boards on a system-to-system basis, including:

- Personal details (title, name)
- Private address details
- Contact details (personal telephone number(s), non-NHS email address)
- Host Health Board (the Health Board in which the clinicians carry out the majority of their GOS activity)
- (For clinicians on Part 1 of a Health Board's Ophthalmic List) Whether or not the clinician provides GOS in domiciliary locations from the practice premises that they are associated with

Some of the above data change requests will be automatically approved and then applied in the National Primary Care Clinician Database (NPCCD). Others, such as name and Host Health Board, will require the relevant Health Board(s) to review the change request in NPCCD and then approve or reject it.

All clinicians with an NHS email account are asked to participate in this process as soon as possible after the OCDA invitation email has been sent to them

Action required by clinicians after OCDA account creation and sign-in

After you have created an OCDA account and signed in (see PCA\(O\)2025\(06\) paragraphs 14–17 for further guidance on account creation and sign-in), review the data displayed and submit one of the two declarations:

- the data is accurate and thus no changes are required; or
- at least one data change is required.

Where the second declaration is made, clinicians are asked to ensure these data change requests are submitted as soon as possible. Once any data change requests have been made and you are satisfied that the data displayed is now accurate, you must submit a further declaration to that effect

Detailed OCDA guidance for clinicians is available on the eyes.nhs.scot website.
